A Track Record of Steady Growth

*Including acquisitions in the 26th Period, as of March 31, 2014

To Our Unitholders

In 2013, including the 24th and 25th Periods, we succeeded in increasing the size and enhancing the quality of NBF's portfolio.

Kenichi Tanaka

President and CEO of Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd.

Improvement in the Japanese economy and the real estate market

During the six months ended December 31, 2013 (the "25th Period"), the Japanese economy continued to recover as the effects of the government's economic policies and bold monetary easing by the Bank of Japan spread to markets for goods and services. In the office leasing market, demand remained strong for tenant relocations to better sites or higher-grade buildings, reflecting the fading impact of the large supply of new office buildings in central Tokyo in 2012, a limited supply of new office buildings in 2013, and improvement in corporate earnings. This strong demand resulted in a decline in vacancy rates due to the tighter balance between supply and demand. Although asking rents remained low for the overall market, an increase in asking rents for new buildings and other improvements were apparent primarily in the Tokyo central business districts, particularly for competitive office buildings with high specifications.

Increasing the size and enhancing the quality of our portfolio

NBF's policy is to make investments from a medium-to-long-term perspective to generate steady growth in assets under management and stable profits. Our initiatives in the 25th Period were based on this policy. In 2013, including the 24th and 25th Periods, we succeeded in increasing the size and enhancing the quality of NBF's portfolio.

Anticipating the recovery of the office building leasing market, we took the opportunity to invest in nine properties with a total acquisition price of ¥156.9 billion, primarily in the Tokyo central business districts, including the Sony City Osaki Building (now the NBF Osaki Building) in Shinagawa-ku. We also disposed of three properties, enhancing the quality of our portfolio through asset replacement.

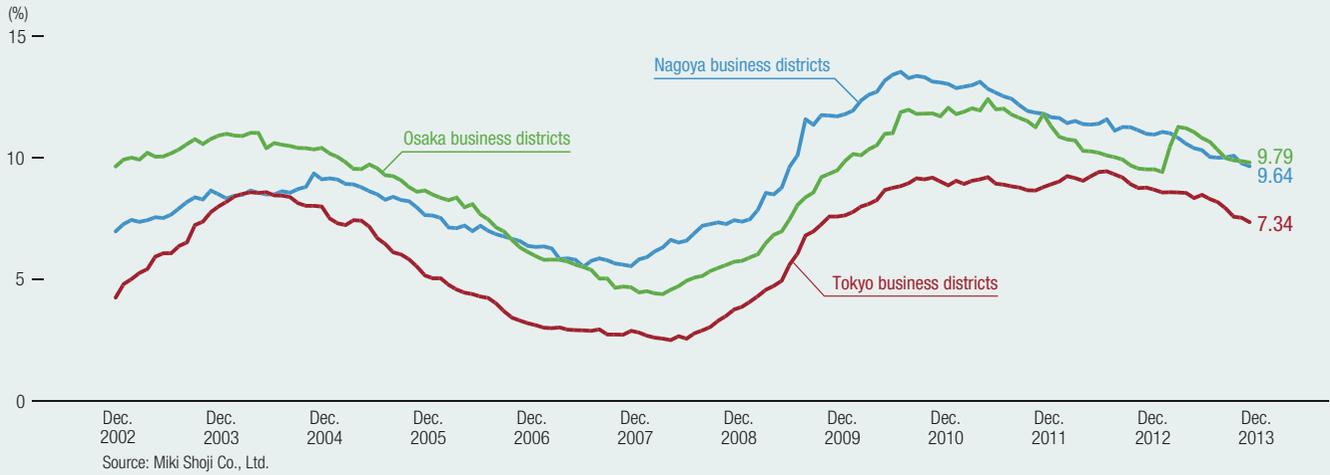

In the office building transaction market, selling prices are on the rise, reflecting increasing demand among investors expecting a full-fledged recovery in the leasing market. Brisk market activity is projected to continue, and NBF intends to make proactive investments in carefully selected properties. From January through March 2014, we have already made three acquisitions, mainly from our sponsors. Two were new properties and one was an additional acquisition at a property already in our portfolio. Moreover, as a result of a capital increase through a public offering in March, we maintain sufficient capacity to make new acquisitions and are prepared for future investment opportunities for external growth.

Increasing unitholder value

NBF will continue to focus on increasing unitholder value by taking full advantage of its features and strengths to achieve mid-to-long-term growth in distribution per unit and expansion of NAV per unit.

CIO and CFO Message

NBF is building a high-quality portfolio by investing aggressively in carefully selected properties while maintaining a sound management base.

Koji Matsufuji

CIO and CFO of Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd.

Steady execution of our portfolio strategy

In 2013, including the 24th and 25th Periods, we increased the size and enhanced the quality of NBF's portfolio. We acquired eight properties in the first half and one in the second half. Seven of the eight properties we acquired in the first half were in Tokyo CBDs. We were able to achieve adequate yields on these acquisitions, with an average NOI yield of 4.48 percent. (The average NOI yield for all eight properties acquired in the first half, including one located in Nagoya, was 4.60 percent.)

The total acquisition price of the nine properties we acquired in 2013, including the one acquired in the second half, was ¥156.9 billion, with an average NOI yield of 4.60 percent. We are proud that we invested in high-quality, large-scale properties primarily in Tokyo CBDs prior to the price increase in the office building market.

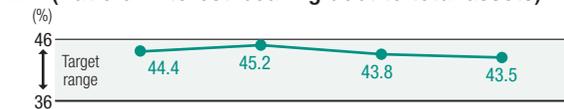

In the first three months of 2014, we took the opportunity to make the following three acquisitions (an additional acquisition at a property already in our portfolio and two new properties).

In January, we acquired condominium interests and co-ownership interests in condominium interests (equivalent to approximately 50.72 percent of the total floor space) in the Sakaisuji-Honmachi Center Building (Chuo-ku, Osaka), a property in which NBF had existing interests, at an acquisition price of ¥6,200 million. With this additional acquisition, NBF now owns the entire property.

In March, we acquired Jingumae M-SQUARE (Shibuya-ku, Tokyo) from our main sponsor, Mitsui Fudosan, for ¥3,700 million, and Nakanoshima Central Tower (Kita-ku, Osaka) from our second major sponsor, Sumitomo Life Insurance Company, for ¥14,900 million.

We expect these three acquisitions with an average NOI yield of 5.55 percent to boost the NOI yield of our overall portfolio, which was 4.67 percent in the 25th Period. Nakanoshima Central Tower (built in 2005) is located in the Nakanoshima area of Osaka, where a large number of office buildings are concentrated. Jingumae M-SQUARE (built in 2009) is located in Shibuya-ku, where vacancy rates are

	Average NOI yield	4.67%	4.70%
	Average NOI yield after depreciation	3.26%	3.26%
Funding	LTV	43.8%	43.5%
	Acquisition capacity*	approx. ¥42.0 billion	approx. ¥48.5 billion relatively low even for central Tokyo. We believe the significance of these acquisitions is that all of the properties are competitive in their locations and relatively new, and we predict that the Sakaisuji-Honmachi Center Building will become even more competitive since we now have 100-percent ownership.

In addition to these acquisitions, we also made property dispositions. In the 24th Period, we disposed of one property for ¥11.9 billion (acquisition price). In the 25th Period, we disposed of a total of three properties for ¥15.8 billion (acquisition price), including a property in which occupancy rates are expected to drop due to redevelopment as well as two smaller-scale properties in the Kansai area. These dispositions enhanced the quality of our portfolio through asset replacement and generated capital gains of approximately ¥4.1 billion (approximately ¥2.1 billion for the 24th Period and ¥2.0 billion for the 25th Period), of which ¥2.6 billion (¥1.3 billion each in the 24th Period and 25th Period) has been retained internally in the reserve for advanced depreciation to be used for future stable operations and distribution to unitholders.

In January 2014, we sold a portion of the site area of the GSK Building to the Tokyo Metropolitan Government. For this disposal, we recorded a capital gain of ¥1.9 billion, of which we plan to retain ¥1.2 billion in the reserve for advanced depreciation.

As a result of these new property acquisitions and property disposals, as of March 31, 2014 we own 73 properties valued at ¥1,074.3 billion on an acquisition price basis and expect the NOI yield of our overall portfolio to be 4.70 percent.

Securing acquisition capacity by controlling LTV

We continue to practice conservative financial management and maintain a sound financial base that allows us to respond flexibly to changes in financial market conditions and property acquisition opportunities. We have kept the LTV ratio within a target range of 36 to 46 percent to maintain a constant level of acquisition capacity. Our LTV ratio after acquiring three properties from January through March 2014 for a total of ¥24.8 billion was approximately 43.5 percent, on par with the 43.8 percent at the end of the 25th Period due to the capital increase implemented in March 2014. As a result, we expect our acquisition capacity to reach approximately ¥48.5 billion within an LTV of 46 percent. NBF intends to use this acquisition capacity to generate further growth.

Leasing revenues: trends and outlook

As for the trends and future outlook of leasing revenues from existing properties, internal growth has remained negative since 2009, following the financial crisis. However, the rate of decrease leveled out after the decrease of more than 10 percent when things were at their worst. In the 25th Period, the rate worsened to around negative 4 percent (period-on-period, annualized), but this was mainly due to the departure of a major tenant from a few particular buildings. As of the end of March 2014, we are close to securing a replacement tenant.

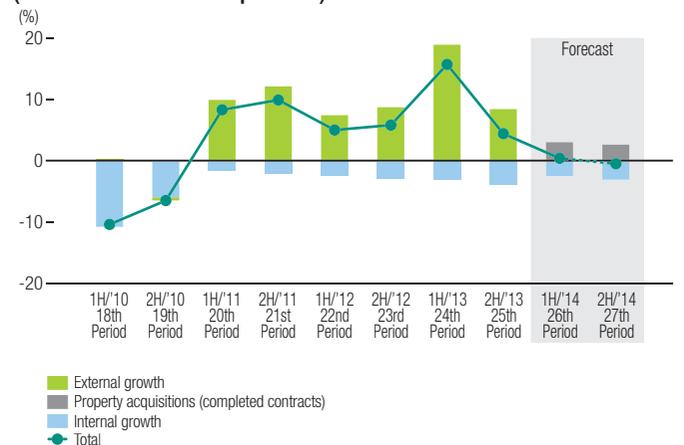

On the other hand, we expect external growth to offset negative internal growth in the 26th and 27th Periods due to the effect of the three properties acquired from January to March 2014.

As I mentioned, with the additional acquisition capacity we secured from the capital increase in March 2014, we plan to increase revenues through external growth by acquiring new assets. At the same time, we will work to increase profit from existing properties by maximizing their advantages.

Management Team and Management Structure

(As of December 31, 2013)

Nippon Building Fund Inc. (NBF) is an investment corporation that takes a medium-to-long-term perspective with the aim of generating steady asset growth and stable profits. NBF continues to do its utmost for investors.

Nippon Building Fund Inc.

Nippon Building Fund Inc. is an investment corporation established with the objective of investing in assets, primarily Designated Assets as defined by the Investment Trust Law of Japan. NBF entrusts the management of its assets to Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd., which is an asset management company.

NBF's primary investment objective is to achieve sustainable growth in portfolio value and stable profits on a medium-to-long-term basis. NBF achieves this objective by investing in real estate consisting of buildings primarily used for offices with their underlying land located in the central business districts (CBDs) of Tokyo, other Greater Tokyo and other cities in Japan. NBF also invests in securities, beneficiary certificates representing beneficial interests in trusts and other assets backed by office properties.

General Meeting of Unitholders

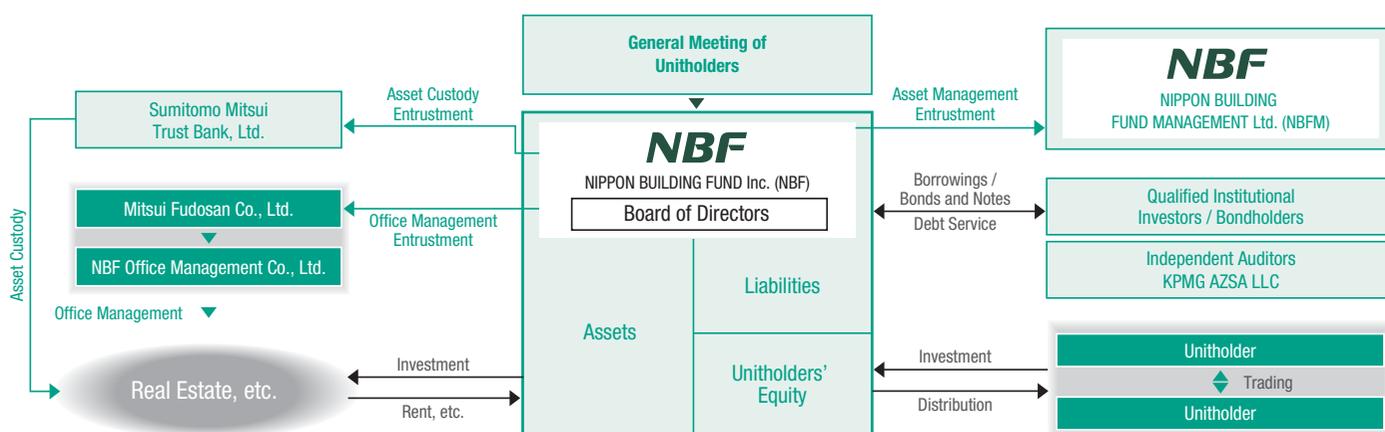

Specific matters pertaining to NBF that are subject to the Investment Trust Law of Japan or the Company's articles of incorporation are decided by resolution of the General Meeting of Unitholders, which convenes at least once every two years, in principle. The eighth General Meeting of Unitholders convened on March 14, 2013. The date of the next General Meeting of Unitholders has not been set.

The General Meeting of Unitholders adopts or vetoes resolutions on the basis of a simple majority of the voting rights of unitholders in attendance, unless otherwise stipulated by laws, regulations or NBF's articles of incorporation. Decisions on substantive matters such as changes in the articles of incorporation require the attendance of unitholders that control a simple majority of total units issued and outstanding, and a two-thirds majority of the voting rights of such unitholders. In addition, any change in the asset management policies and standards, which are stipulated by NBF's articles of incorporation, requires an extraordinary resolution of unitholders as outlined above.

Executive Directors, Supervisory Directors and the Board of Directors

NBF's articles of incorporation stipulate that NBF must have one or more executive directors and four or fewer supervisory directors, but the number of supervisory directors must always be at least one greater than the number of executive directors. As of December 31, 2013, NBF had one executive director and three supervisory directors.

NBF's executive director is responsible for business execution and has authority for all judicial and extrajudicial proceedings related to the operations of NBF. Supervisory directors are responsible for supervising execution by the executive director.

	Tetsuro Tsugawa	Appointed Supervisory Director of NBF in March 2013. Attorney.
	Yutaka Fukaya	Appointed Supervisory Director of NBF in March 2013. Certified Public Accountant and Certified Public Tax Accountant.

The Board of Directors consists of the executive and supervisory directors. Its responsibilities include authorizing business execution and supervising the performance of the executive director. Resolutions by the Board of Directors require a simple majority with more than half of the members of the Board in attendance.

The bylaws of NBF's Board of Directors stipulate that executive and supervisory directors may not participate in decisions in which they have a vested interest. Executive and supervisory directors with such financial interest shall not be included in the number of executive and supervisory directors in attendance for such decisions.

The terms of office of the executive director and supervisory directors are two years from the time they assume office. The terms of executive directors and supervisory directors selected to fill a vacancy or to increase the number of directors expire at the same time as the remaining terms of their predecessors or the current directors.

The executive director serving as of December 31, 2013 was elected with the consent of all unitholders on March 14, 2013. The three supervisory directors and the substitute executive director were elected at the General Meeting of Unitholders held on March 14, 2013, and assumed office on March 17, 2013.

Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd.

NBF entrusts asset management to Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. under an asset management agreement.

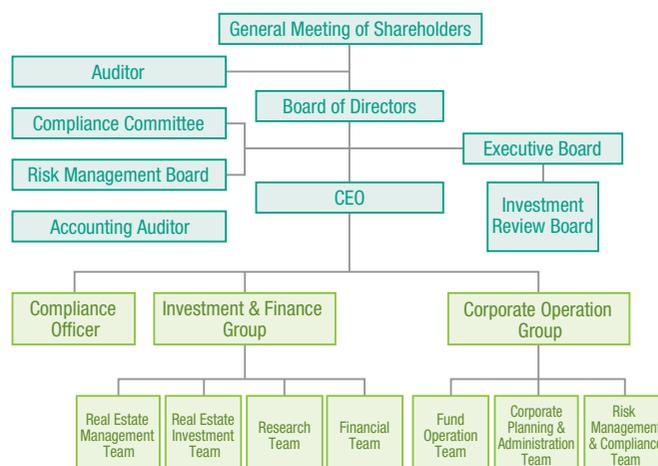

Matters Entrusted to Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd.

Compliance Initiatives

The management of NBF and Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. conduct honest and appropriate business activities while maintaining rigorous compliance by adhering to all relevant laws and regulations, based on a high level of corporate ethics.

The bylaws of NBF's Board of Directors stipulate that Board of Directors' meetings are to be held at least once every three months. In practice, NBF holds such meetings once a month. At Board meetings, the executive director reports on the execution of his duties and supervisory directors ensure that oversight and check-and-balance systems are functioning properly.

Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. views compliance as a management strategy, with a fundamental compliance policy of conducting operations honestly and fairly while maintaining a rigorous compliance system based on a high level of corporate ethics. Specifically, Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. has established a Compliance Committee, consisting of the Compliance Officer, the president, the head of the Investment & Finance Group, the head of the Corporate Operation Group and an outside committee member. Initiatives to enhance awareness of and adherence to compliance include the establishment of Compliance Rules and a Compliance Manual. In addition, a Compliance Program is formulated each year to verify the progress of the execution plan for that year and identify any problem areas.

Risk Management System

NBF and Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. have established the following risk management system to avoid and minimize risks related to investments.

NBF

NBF's Risk Management Regulations define risk management policies and procedures. The Risk Management Board convenes once every three months and undertakes deliberation, monitoring and other initiatives to ensure that the entrusted asset managers are conducting their duties with due care in good faith in a manner consistent with its fiduciary duty to the conservation and maintenance of entrusted assets.

Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd.

Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. formulates a Management Policy, a Medium-to-Long-Term Asset Management Policy and an Annual Management Plan to follow in managing NBF's assets. In addition, Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. has set Asset Management Guidelines as a set of standards to follow.

The Asset Management Guidelines consist of management guidelines for management, acquisition and sale of assets; financial guidelines for fund procurement and management policies; accounting guidelines for tax accounting and dividend distribution policies; and guidelines on transactions with potential conflicts of interest.

Policy and Management System for Dealing with Conflict of Interest Transactions

Fundamental Policy on Conflict of Interest Transactions

Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. is constantly aware of its accountability to NBF and NBF's unitholders with regard to any transactions in which the interests of NBF and the interests of Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. and its related corporations or customers may conflict. Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. follows voluntary rules stipulated in laws and internal bylaws to proactively prevent conflicts of interest.

All decisions made in executing the management of NBF's assets are subject to the approval of the president, and are made after going through discussions by the Investment Review Board and Executive Board of Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. Sponsor companies are not permitted to intervene in the decision-making process.

Voluntary Rules for Conflict of Interest Transactions Stipulated in Internal Bylaws

Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. has set voluntary rules in its internal bylaws to address transactions with parties, including sponsor companies that have interests in Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd.

The voluntary rules require the Investment Division, which initiates the transaction, as well as the Compliance Department, the Asset Management Examination Meeting and other units to protect NBF's managed assets and profits by fully examining the transaction contents according to the voluntary rules set in the internal bylaws in the event of a transaction in which the interests of Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. and parties that have interests in Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. may conflict with the interests of NBF. These rules are designed from the standpoint of accountability to NBF and its unitholders.

In examining the transaction contents, Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. solicits the opinions of attorneys, certified tax accountants and other third-party experts as needed. In addition, when purchasing real estate or other assets from parties that have interests in Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd., the purchase price is strictly set, in principle no higher than the appraised value according to a real estate appraiser with no vested interest.

Notes: 1. U.S. dollar amounts are translated from yen, for convenience only, at the rate of ¥105.25 = U.S.$1.00, the approximate exchange rate on December 31, 2013.

2. Operating revenues do not include consumption tax.

3. All valuations are calculated through the following formulas. The figures in parentheses after ROA and ROE are annualized based on the six-month figures for the period.

Funds from operations: Net income (excluding Gain and Loss on sale of investment properties) + Depreciation and amortization

Net operating income from property leasing activities: (Revenue from property leasing – Rental expenses) + Depreciation and amortization

Funds from operations per unit: (Net income (excluding Gain and Loss on sale of investment properties) + Depreciation and amortization) / Weighted average number of units issued and outstanding during the period

ROA: Income before income taxes / (Initial total assets + Total assets at end of period) ÷ 2

ROE: Net income / (Initial net assets + Net assets at end of period) ÷ 2

LTV: Interest-bearing debt / Total assets

4. Payout ratio figures are calculated to one decimal place only.

5. Number of investment properties means units generally perceived to be one office building. Number of tenants means gross number of tenants by building. Occupancy rate, end-tenant basis, is the ratio of gross leased area to total rentable area at the end of the period.

* Effective January 1, 2014, NBF implemented a 2-for-1 unit split of the units held by unitholders registered on the register of unitholders as of December 31, 2013.

Operating Environment and Results

During the six months ended December 31, 2013 (the “25th Period”), the Japanese economy continued to recover as the effects of the government’s economic policies and bold monetary easing by the Bank of Japan spread to markets for goods and services. Domestic demand led the economic rebound. Personal consumption was firm due to a gradual improvement in employment conditions and the start of a surge in demand, mainly for durable goods, ahead of the consumption tax increase scheduled for April 2014. In addition, public works projects shifted into high gear and corporate capital expenditures rose.

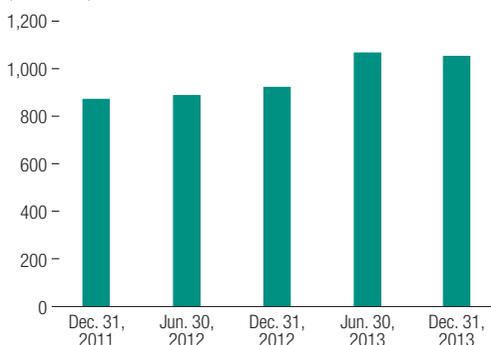

In the office building leasing market, vacancy rates slowly declined as the supply of properties remained limited in the second half of 2013 and strong demand continued for relocations to better sites or higher-grade buildings. The improved supply-demand balance led to an upturn in asking rents, especially for prime properties with high specifications. Brisk activity continued in the office building transaction market, driven by a favorable fund procurement environment and expectations of long-term improvement in the office market. Moreover, the limited supply of the prime office buildings targeted for investment was reflected in declining cap rates and an upward trend in selling prices.

Under these conditions, NBF continued to manage its assets in accordance with its basic policy of investing in high-quality office buildings that are highly competitive in terms of location, size and facilities, and are expected to generate stable cash flow from rents. During the 25th period, NBF acquired the Nishi Shinjuku Mitsui Building (additional acquisition, co-ownership interests in condominium interests, acquisition price of ¥135 million) in December 2013. In addition, NBF disposed of the NBF Nihonbashi Muromachi Center Building (50 percent quasi co-ownership of trust beneficiary interests, disposition price of ¥14.1 billion) in August 2013, and the NBF Shijo Karasuma Building (trust beneficiary interests, ¥1.6 billion) in October 2013 and NBF Sakai-Higashi Building (trust beneficiary interests, ¥1.8 billion) in November 2013. For properties already in its portfolio, NBF systematically conducted property management, renovations and new construction to further raise tenant satisfaction. NBF also worked to secure stable rental revenue by setting appropriate rents for new tenants and revising rents for tenants renewing their lease contracts while keeping abreast of market trends.

NBF’s real estate portfolio as of December 31, 2013 comprised 71 properties. Total investment on an acquisition price basis was ¥1,050.8 billion. Total rentable area was 1,038,549 m². The occupancy rate decreased 0.7 percentage points from June 30, 2013 to 97.1 percent and the total number of tenants was 1,116.

Distribution for the Current Period

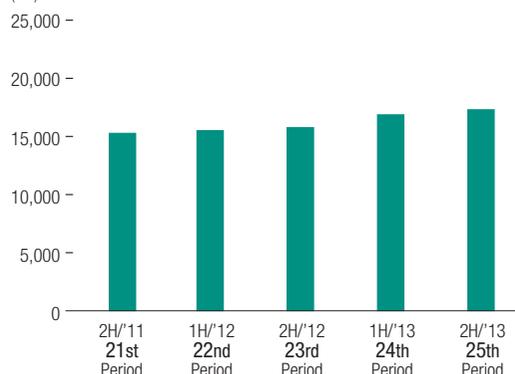

Distribution per unit for the current period was ¥17,290. NBF expects to distribute all retained earnings at the current period end remaining after deducting the amount appropriated to the reserve for advanced depreciation of non-current assets as stipulated in Article 66-2 of the Special Taxation Measures Law of Japan to be eligible for special tax treatment (Special Taxation Measures Law of Japan Article 67-15) that allows NBF to deduct its cash dividends of profits from taxable income.

Changes in Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets

Assets

As of December 31, 2013, total assets decreased by ¥25,180 million to ¥1,022,812 million compared with June 30, 2013. Return on average total assets (ROA) for the six months ended December 31, 2013 decreased to 1.28 percent from 1.33 percent for the previous six-month period.

Current assets decreased by ¥5,166 million to ¥37,348 million compared with June 30, 2013. Investment properties decreased by ¥20,048 million to ¥979,170 million compared with June 30, 2013.

Liabilities

Current liabilities decreased by ¥27,466 million to ¥60,050 million compared with June 30, 2013, primarily because of a decrease in short-term loans compared with June 30, 2013.

Long-term debt increased by ¥2,625 million to ¥399,125 million compared with June 30, 2013.

As a result, total interest-bearing liabilities decreased by ¥25,375 million to ¥447,875 million compared with June 30, 2013. And, the ratio of long-term fixed-rate debt (for which the redemption period at the time of contract or issuance is more than one year) to total interest-bearing liabilities increased to 99.6 percent as of December 31, 2013 from 94.7 percent as of June 30, 2013.

The loan-to-value ratio, calculated as the ratio of interest-bearing liabilities to total assets, decreased to 43.8 percent as of December 31, 2013 from 45.2 percent as of June 30, 2013.

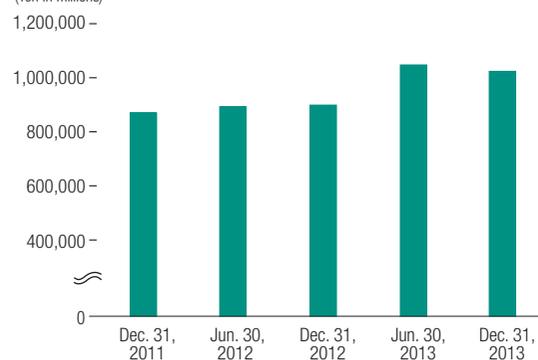

In addition, NBF worked to diversify funding sources. In January 2013, NBF updated a shelf registration to publicly offer up to ¥200 billion in bonds.

Net assets

Net assets increased by ¥1,614 million to ¥519,198 million compared with June 30, 2013.

Balance of Paid-in Capital

NBF was established on March 16, 2001 with initial paid-in capital of ¥100 million. NBF began investing activities in May 2001 after ¥98,800 million was raised through private placements. As of December 31, 2013, NBF had issued 692,000 units out of 2,000,000 total authorized units. NBF's units were listed on the J-REIT section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange in September 2001 upon the completion of a public offering. As the Investment Trust Law of Japan does not contain any provision for the issue of more than one class of units, NBF's units comprise the sole class of units authorized and issued by NBF.

Notes to Financial Statements

NIPPON BUILDING FUND INC.

For the six months ended December 31, 2013, June 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012

Note 1 Organization and Basis of Presentation

Organization

Nippon Building Fund Inc. (hereinafter "NBF") was formed on March 16, 2001 as an investment corporation under the Law Concerning Investment Trusts and Investment Corporations of Japan (hereinafter the Investment Trust Law of Japan) with Mitsui Fudosan Co., Ltd., Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited., and Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. (hereinafter "NBFM") acting as sponsors. Registration with the Kanto Local Finance Bureau of the Ministry of Finance was completed on May 10, 2001 and NBF started acquisition of office properties on May 23, 2001.

NBF is an externally managed real estate fund, formed as an investment corporation. NBFM, as NBF's asset management company, is engaged in acquiring, managing, leasing, and renovating office properties. Mitsui Fudosan Co., Ltd. currently owns 43% of NBFM while Sumitomo Life Insurance Company owns 35% and the remaining 22% is mainly owned by financial institutions.

On September 10, 2001, NBF had raised approximately ¥50,000 million through an initial public offering of units. Those units are listed on the J-REIT section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

As of December 31, 2013, NBF had ownership or beneficiary interests in 71 office properties containing approximately 1,038,549 square meters of rentable office space. As of December 31, 2013, NBF had leased office space to 1,116 tenants engaged in a variety of businesses. The occupancy rate for the office properties was approximately 97.7%.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Investment Trust Law of Japan and the Japanese Financial Instruments and Exchange Law and their related accounting regulations, and in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan (hereinafter "Japanese GAAP"), which are different in certain respects as to application and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards.

The accompanying financial statements have been restructured and translated into English from the financial statements of NBF prepared in accordance with Japanese GAAP and filed with the appropriate Local Finance Bureau of the Ministry of Finance as required by the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law. Some supplementary information included in the statutory Japanese language financial statements, but not required for fair presentation, is not presented in the accompanying financial statements. NBF does not prepare consolidated financial statements, as NBF has no subsidiaries.

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents

NBF considers all highly liquid investments with original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents.

Investment Properties

Investment properties are recorded at cost, which includes the allocated purchase price, related costs and expenses for acquisition of the office properties and the beneficiary interests of properties in trust. Property and equipment balances are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives of the principal tangible fixed assets (including assets held in trust) are as follows:

Buildings and improvements	2-50 years
Structures	2-50 years
Machinery and equipment	2-17 years
Tools, furniture and fixtures	2-19 years

Costs related to the renovation, construction and improvement of properties are capitalized. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance which do not add to the value or prolong the useful life of a property, are expensed as incurred.

Investment Corporation Bond Issuance Costs

Deferred investment corporation bond issuance costs are amortized using the straight-line method over the respective terms of the bonds.

New Investment Units Issuance Costs

The issuance costs of new investment units are expensed when incurred.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for on the basis of income for financial statement purposes. The tax effect of temporary differences between the amounts of assets and liabilities for financial statements and for income tax purposes is recognized as deferred taxes.

Real Estate Taxes

Real estate taxes are imposed on properties on a calendar year basis and expensed when incurred. In terms of newly purchased properties, NBF capitalizes a portion of the real estate taxes that relate to a period from the purchase date of each property until the end of the calendar year as part of the acquisition cost of the relevant property. Capitalized real estate taxes amounted to ¥2 million for the period ended December 31, 2013, ¥741 million for the period ended June 30, 2013 and ¥56 million for the period ended December 31, 2012.

Revenue Recognition

NBF operates office properties that are rented to tenants on lease terms of generally two years, with monthly payments due in advance. Rental and other property income is recorded when due from tenants and is recognized monthly as it is earned. Common area charges provided for in tenant leases are recognized as income when earned and their amounts can be reasonably estimated.

Accounting Treatment of Beneficiary Interests in Trust Assets including Real Estate

For trust beneficiary interests in real estate, all accounts of assets and liabilities within assets in trust as well as all income generated and expenses incurred from assets in trust are recorded in the relevant balance sheet and income statement accounts.

Note 3

Financial Instruments

Status of Financial Instruments

Policy for Financial Instruments

NBF procures funds for acquisition of assets and repayment of debt, which includes repayment of tenant security deposits, loans and investment corporation bonds, through issuance of new investment units, bank loans and issuance of investment corporation bonds, with the aim of ensuring steady asset growth and stable earnings from a mid- and long-term angle.

As a general rule NBF invests surplus funds in deposits considering safety of the investments.

NBF may enter into derivative transactions solely for the purpose of reducing interest rate risks and other risks arising from liabilities. NBF does not engage in speculative transactions. Currently NBF is not engaged in any derivative transactions.

Financial Instruments, Their Risks and Risk Management System

Deposits are used for investment of NBF's surplus funds. These deposits are exposed to credit risks such as bankruptcy of the depository financial institutions. NBF limits credit risk by using only short-term deposits in financial institutions with high credit ratings.

Proceeds from loans and investment corporation bonds are used mainly to acquire real estate properties and repay outstanding loans and bonds. While these loans and bonds are exposed to liquidity risk, such risk is managed in the following ways such as diversifying the means of funding and lending institutions, dispersing repayment dates, establishing committed credit line, keeping sufficient liquidity in hand, and monitoring cash flows projected monthly.

Short-term loans are exposed to interest-rate fluctuation. NBF limits the impact of such risks by maintaining the debt-asset ratio low and the level of long-term fixed-rate debt high.

Tenant security deposits are exposed to liquidity risk arising from vacating of properties by tenants due to the termination of contract. NBF manages this risk by monitoring forecasted cash flows on a monthly basis to ensure it has sufficient funds.

Supplemental Explanation regarding Fair Values of Financial Instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is based on their observable market value, if available. When there is no observable market value available, fair value is based on a price that is reasonably estimated. Since various factors are reflected in estimating the fair value, different assumptions and factors could result in a different value.

Estimated Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Book value, fair value and difference between the two as of December 31, 2013 are as follows.

The financial instruments for which it is very difficult to estimate the fair value are excluded from the following table (See Note 2. below).

	(Yen in millions)
	Book value	Fair value	Difference
Assets
(1) Cash and cash equivalents	¥ 36,510	¥ 36,510	¥ —
Total	¥ 36,510	¥ 36,510	¥ —
Liabilities
(1) Short-term loans	¥ 2,000	¥ 2,000	¥ —
(2) Long-term debt due within one year	46,750	47,108	358
(3) Long-term debt	399,125	408,094	8,969
Total	¥447,875	¥457,202	¥9,327

Notes: 1. Methods to Estimate Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Assets:

(1) Cash and cash equivalents

Book values of those instruments are used to determine their fair values, as the book values are considered to approximate fair values because these instruments are settled within a short term period.

Liabilities:

(1) Short-term loans

Book values of those instruments are used to determine their fair values, as the book values are considered to approximate fair values because these instruments are settled within a short term period.

(2) Long-term debt due within one year

Long-term debt due within one year which includes Investment corporation bonds and Long-term loans are as follows.

	(Yen in millions)
	Book value	Fair value	Difference
(1) Investment corporation bonds	¥10,000	¥10,060	¥ 60
(2) Long-term loans	36,750	37,048	298
Total	¥46,750	¥47,108	¥358

1) Investment corporation bonds

Fair values of investment corporation bonds are based on observable market value, if available. When there is no observable market value available, fair values are calculated based on the present value of principal and interest cash flows discounted at the current interest rate that is estimated by taking into consideration the remaining term of the investment corporation bonds and their credit risk.

2) Long-term loans

Fair values of long-term loans are based on the present value of principal and interest cash flows discounted at the current interest rate estimated to be applied if similar new loans were entered into.

(3) Long-term debt

Long-term debt which includes Investment corporation bonds and Long-term loans are as follows.

	(Yen in millions)
	Book value	Fair value	Difference
(1) Investment corporation bonds	¥ 60,000	¥ 61,833	¥1,833

1) Investment corporation bonds

Fair values of investment corporation bonds are based on observable market value, if available. When there is no observable market value available, fair values are calculated based on the present value of principal and interest cash flows discounted at the current interest rate that is estimated by taking into consideration the remaining term of the investment corporation bonds and their credit risk.

2) Long-term loans

Fair values of long-term loans are based on the present value of principal and interest cash flows discounted at the current interest rate estimated to be applied if similar new loans were entered into.

Book value, fair value and difference between the two as of June 30, 2013 are as follows.

The financial instruments for which it is very difficult to estimate the fair value are excluded from the following table (See Note 2. below).

	(Yen in millions)

2. Financial Instruments for Which It Is Very Difficult to Estimate the Fair Value.

(Yen in millions)

	As of December 31, 2013	As of June 30, 2013
Tenant security deposits including trust accounts	¥44,363	¥46,311

Security deposits from tenants are not subject to fair value disclosure because they are not marketable, and actual deposit period is not estimable as leases may be cancelled, renewed or re-signed even if a lease term is set in the lease contract, that makes a reasonable estimate of future cash flows difficult.

Note 15 Significant Subsequent Events

1. Unit Split

Effective January 1, 2014, NBF implemented a 2-for-1 unit split of the units held by unitholders registered on the register of unit-holders as of December 31, 2013.

(1) Purpose of Split

In connection with the introduction of the individual savings account system of Japan ("NISA") from January 1, 2014, NBF implemented this split of its investment units in order to create an environment for investors to make investments more easily by reducing the amount of each investment unit.

(2) Method of Split

As of December 31, 2013 as record date, each of the investment units owned by the unitholders who are registered or recorded in the latest register of unitholders were divided on a two-for-one basis.

(3) Number of investment units etc. to be increased through split

Independent Auditor's Report

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors of
Nippon Building Fund Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Nippon Building Fund Inc.(a Japanese Real Estate Investment Trust), which comprise the balance sheets as at December 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013, and the statements of income, statements of changes in net assets and statements of cash flows for each of the six months ended December 31, 2013, June 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information expressed in Japanese yen.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the objective of the financial statement audit is not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Nippon Building Fund Inc. as at December 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013, and their financial performance and cash flows for each of the six months ended December 31, 2013, June 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Emphasis of Matter

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 15 to the financial statements, which states that Nippon Building Fund Inc. issued new units.

Investment and Distribution Policies

Investment Policies of NBF

A. Basic Policies

NBF's primary investment objective is to achieve sustainable growth in portfolio value and stable profits on a medium-to-long-term basis. NBF achieves this objective by investing in real estate consisting of buildings primarily used for offices with their underlying land located in the Tokyo central business districts (hereinafter "CBDs"), Other Greater Tokyo and Other Cities in Japan as well as securities, beneficiary certificates representing beneficial interests in trusts (hereinafter "beneficiary certificates") and other assets backed by office properties (collectively hereinafter "Real Estate, etc.") ("Investment Objectives and Policies," Articles of Incorporation). (Reference to laws, legal documents, etc. used as the basis or sources hereof are set forth in parenthesis herein.)

B. Investment Strategy

Nippon Building Fund Management Ltd. ("NBFM"), based on the investment strategy of NBF set forth below, invests and manages the assets of NBF. NBFM has established asset management guidelines based on the Articles of Incorporation of NBF and in accordance with the investment strategy of NBF.

(1) Strategy for Creation of the Portfolio

The goal of the portfolio is to generate steady growth and stable profits on a medium-to-long-term basis. The selection criteria of investment assets is based on the composition of investment assets in the portfolio and on consideration of a quantitative proportion of the office stock located in the various regions of Japan.

Area Diversification

The investment strategy of NBF divides the investment area into three areas consisting of Tokyo CBDs, Other Greater Tokyo and Other Cities in such manner that 70% or more of total investment assets (Real Estate, etc.) are allocated to Tokyo CBDs and Other Greater Tokyo and 30% or less to Other Cities. The purpose of this area diversification is to mitigate cash flow risks such as earthquakes, risk of vacancies and so forth ("Investment Objectives and Policies," Articles of Incorporation).

The following table sets forth above said area diversification strategy.

Area and Allocation Ratio	Area Analysis
Tokyo CBDs 9 central wards in Tokyo: Chiyoda, Minato, Chuo, Shinjuku, Shinagawa, Shibuya, Toshima, Bunkyo and Meguro	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Relatively high rent levels and low vacancy rates compared to Other Cities; also, relatively large market scale (both leasing and purchase/sale) with high growth rates. ■ Relatively low yearly NOI yields. ■ Relatively high liquidity at the time of sale.
Other Greater Tokyo Other 14 wards of Tokyo and neighboring cities (see Note 1 below) such as Musashino, Tachikawa, Yokohama, Kawasaki, Chiba, Kashiwa, Saitama, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Basic special characteristics are between those of Tokyo CBDs and Other Cities.

Total of above two areas: 70% or more

Other Cities Principal regional cities such as Sapporo, Sendai, Niigata, Shizuoka, Hamamatsu, Nagoya, Kyoto, Osaka, Kobe, Okayama, Hiroshima, Takamatsu, Fukuoka, Kumamoto, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Rent levels relatively low and vacancy rates relatively high compared to Tokyo CBDs, with some variance by each area's characteristics; also, relatively small market scale and low growth rates. ■ Relatively high yearly NOI yields. ■ Relatively low liquidity at the time of sales.
--	---

Total of above area: 30% or less

- Notes: 1. "Neighboring cities" refers to the metropolis of Tokyo excluding its 23 wards, and the 6 prefectures of Kanagawa, Chiba, Saitama, Ibaraki, Gunma and Tochigi.
 2. Due to unforeseeable events, such as extreme fluctuations in macroeconomic trends, financial trends, real estate market trends and so forth, it may not always be possible to operate in accordance with each of the above criteria ("Investment Objectives and Policies," Articles of Incorporation).

(2) Acquisition Strategy

a) Ratio of Real Estate Assets

NBF will maintain a ratio of 75% or more with respect to the "Designated Real Estate Ratio" ("Investment Objectives and Policies," Articles of Incorporation). As of December 31, 2012, NBF satisfied the criteria.

The "Designated Real Estate Ratio" means the ratio of the total amount of Designated Real Estate to the total amount of Designated Assets owned by NBF.

Note: Designated Real Estate includes real estate, real estate leasehold rights, superficies and beneficiary certificates backed by real estate, land leasehold rights and superficies (as designated under Article 83.4.3.1 of the Special Taxation Measures Law of Japan).

b) Due Diligence

When investing in office properties, selections will be made through comprehensive research and analysis based on the forecast investment yields resulting from the acquisition costs and their anticipated profits, future prospects and stability of the area of location, availability of measures responding to risks of deterioration and obsolescence, insurability and so forth of the relevant office properties (or Beneficiary Certificates backed by such office properties) (“Investment Objectives and Policies,” Articles of Incorporation). The details of the relevant criteria are set forth in the following table.

Though such consideration will involve the study of the criteria included in the following table, it is possible that when NBF acquires or intends to acquire operating assets, not all of the following criteria will be satisfied.

Item	Points to be reviewed
Scale of building	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Net rentable area, including net rentable area of entire building and standard net rentable area per floor. ■ Desired total net rentable area is 1,650m² (approximately 500 tsubo) or more. ■ Desired standard net rentable area per floor is 330m² (approximately 100 tsubo) or more.
Construction type and specifications of facilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Building design and floor plan suitable for leasing, with divisibility, adequate ceiling height, electrical service, HVAC equipment, etc.
Earthquake resistance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Ensure that construction quality exceeds earthquake standards (meaning those required pursuant to the Building Standards Law as amended in 1981) or standards equivalent thereto (obtain structural appraisal/assessment (appraisal/assessment of the building structure pursuant to the Building Standards Law conducted by The Building Center of Japan), etc.).
Measures regarding status of legal title	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ In cases such as co-ownership, divided condominium ownership, a building erected on leased land, etc. where NBF will not obtain complete ownership of a building, the following matters are appropriately treated. • Measures to protect security deposits, policies and measures regarding cash reserves for long-term renovation plans. • Appropriate measures regarding demands for division of co-owned interests or the sale of a co-owner’s interest, etc.
Tenancy characteristics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Acceptable creditworthiness of tenants, purposes of use by tenants, configuration, and condition of collectibility of rents, etc.
Environmental: condition of land, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Absence of harmful substances such as asbestos (or countermeasures can be implemented for any such substances), non-existence of soil pollution, etc.

c) Uncompleted or Unleasable Properties

In principle, NBF acquires Real Estate, etc. which are leased/leasable assets at the time of closing. NBF may acquire a property which is not yet leasable at the time of closing based on consideration of the impact on NBF’s asset management activities after taking into account the investment amount, the date of completion or of becoming leasable, estimated revenue and so forth, provided, however, that the contract amount of any such unleaseable asset combined with the total contract amount of previously acquired unleaseable assets (but excluding unleaseable assets which thereafter become operational) will not exceed 10% of the total assets indicated on the most recent balance sheet of NBF. For this purpose, “leased/leasable assets” shall mean property with respect to which the construction of the building has been completed and such building is leased or leasable. Properties which are owned by NBF and have become operational at some point shall be deemed “leasable” thereafter (including such cases as reconstruction or large-scale renovation of a building) (“Investment Objectives and Policies,” Articles of Incorporation).

(3) Management and Disposition Policies

Regarding acquired Real Estate, etc., the goal is to obtain steady growth of operating profits on a medium-to-long-term basis by planning to maintain and improve asset value and competitive ability through investment in facilities and by expanding income (increasing rents, etc., increasing occupancy rates, extending the term of leases and rendering them more stable, etc.) and reducing property-related expenses.

NBF will, in principle, for the purpose of assuring stable income on a medium-to-long-term basis, lease out all Real Estate, etc. included in operating assets (including installation of parking lots, billboards, etc.). When conducting such leasing, security deposits, etc. and other similar monies may be received and said monies will be managed in accordance with the requirements of the Articles of Incorporation (“Investment Objectives and Policies,” Articles of Incorporation).

NBF is entitled to establish reserves for long-term renovations required to maintain and enhance the value of operating properties, reserves for payables, reserves for cash distributions and any other similar reserves, etc. (Article 14.1 (2) of the Articles of Incorporation).

a) Reserves for Long-Term Renovations

From the reserves set forth above, a portion corresponding to renovations, repairs and tenant improvements will be determined based on renovation plans for each building. As of December 31, 2013, foreseen reserves provided from January 2014 to December 2014 are as follows:

Item	Reason
Reserves for long-term renovations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Average annual amount over an approximately 10-year period based on engineering reports
Reserves for tenant improvements (reserves for future construction expenses required for spaces leased to tenants)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Expenses of providing “free access floor” ■ Expenses for other move-in construction costs (partitions, etc.)

Total Foreseen Amount (annual basis): ¥4,356 million

Notes: 1. In addition to the above-mentioned amount, certain amounts are set aside as cash reserves for renovation pursuant to the administrative rules of the buildings in which NBF owns condominium interests, etc.

2. The amount of reserves set forth above is the total amount of reserves with respect to the 71 properties owned by NBF as of December 31, 2013.

b) Measures to Avoid Reductions and Fluctuations in Operating Income

In order to avoid large-scale reductions and fluctuations in operating income due to fire damage, withdrawal of tenants and so forth, efforts, such as area diversification and obtaining adequate fire and casualty insurance, etc., will be exerted.

c) Disposition

In disposing of individual operating properties, selections will be made through comprehensive research and analysis based on the forecasted income, actual and predicted fluctuations in asset value, future prospects and stability of the area of location, risks of deterioration and obsolescence of real estate and predicted costs thereof as well as the composition of the portfolio, etc. Sell/hold studies will be periodically undertaken with respect to all operating properties ("Investment Objectives and Policies," Articles of Incorporation).

(4) Financial Policies

a) Issuance of Units

NBF may issue units in order to undertake acquisition and renovation and so forth of assets and to provide allowance for funds required for working capital as well as for the repayment of debt (including security deposits, borrowings and repayment of obligations regarding NBF bonds, etc.).

b) Debt Financing

NBF may raise capital (including use of the call loan market) and issue bonds in order to undertake acquisition and renovation and so forth of assets and to provide allowance for funds required for working capital as well as for the repayment of debt (including security deposits, borrowings and repayment of obligations regarding NBF bonds, etc.) ("Investment Objectives and Policies," Articles of Incorporation).

Borrowings are limited to those from Qualified Institutional Investors as specified in the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan, in case capital is borrowed. Further, the total limit on all such borrowings and issues of NBF bonds will be ¥1,000,000 million. When undertaking borrowings or when issuing NBF bonds, NBF may provide operating assets as collateral (Article 15 of the Articles of Incorporation).

c) Loan-to-Value Ratio

The ratio of the total amount of borrowings, issues of NBF bonds and lease deposits under management to the total amount of assets of NBF (loan-to-value ratio) is envisioned to be limited to 60%, but may temporarily exceed 60% when acquiring certain assets, etc. (medium-to-long-term operating asset management policy and annual management plan established by the Asset Management Company).

d) Derivative Transactions

NBF purchases rights in derivatives transactions solely to hedge against risks, including risks of fluctuation in interest rates for debt, as set out in Article 2.20 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan ("Investment Objectives and Policies," Articles of Incorporation).

(5) Disclosure Policy

NBF's policy on disclosure is to earn recognition from society by showing itself to be an open and transparent investment company. It also works at all times to engender an environment in which it can disseminate fair and unbiased information to all its investors without delay. In addition to conducting disclosure in the style required by the Investment Trust and Investment Corporation Law of Japan, the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan, the Tokyo Stock Exchange, the Investment Trusts Association and other laws and organizations, NBF also voluntarily discloses information it deems necessary for investor decision-making.

a) Appraisal Value, etc.

In the event that NBF undertakes asset valuation for the purpose of disclosure in Performance Information Reports, etc. using methods and standards different from those it has set forth, (a) the disclosure value to be used for real estate, real estate leasehold rights and superficies will, in principle, be the appraised valuation provided by a certified real estate appraiser, and (b) the disclosure value to be used for beneficiary certificates, equity interests of tokumei kumiai and equity interests of partnerships for which respective assets are real estate, real estate leasehold rights or superficies will be the calculated value of equity interests of each based on the value of their respective assets as determined in (a) plus the fair value of any financial assets as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, less trust and total tokumei kumiai liabilities (Articles of Incorporation).

The appraisal value of property with respect to the period commencing on the acquisition thereof and ending on the date of disclosure of such value with respect to the next following closure of NBF's accounting term shall be the acquisition price of the said property (excluding miscellaneous acquisition costs, fixed assets tax, city-planning tax and consumption tax) as stated in the sale and purchase contract, etc. for the said property.

Investment Objectives of NBF

Investment Restrictions in Articles of Incorporation

The Investment Objectives of NBF specified in the Articles of Incorporation are as follows. Please also refer to “B. Investment Strategy” of “Investment Policies of NBF” herein.

- (9) Beneficiary Certificates of Money Trust (limited to those the trust assets of which are primarily invested and Managed Assets referred to in paragraph (1), (3) or (4) above, provided, however, that those that are deemed securities are excluded)

B. Other Investment Objectives among Designated Assets

NBF may, in the course of efficiently managing funds or in other cases as necessary, invest in the following Designated Assets.

- (1) Bank deposits
- (2) Certificates of deposit issued by Japanese legal entities
- (3) Call loans
- (4) Japanese government bonds, notes and bills (meaning those specified in Article 2.1.1 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan)
- (5) Regional treasury bonds, notes and bills (meaning those specified in Article 2.1.2 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan)
- (6) Commercial paper (meaning that specified in Article 2.1.15 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan)

- (1) Equity interests of partnerships, excluding assets in section A, paragraph (4)
- (2) Easements
- (3) Trademark rights
- (4) Copyrights

- (5) Chattels
- (6) Requisite ancillary rights to Designated Assets referred to in section A

Distribution Policies of NBF

A. Distributions of Profits

A registered investment corporation may deduct its cash dividends of profits from taxable income under Japanese tax regulations if it distributes to its unitholders in excess of 90% of its taxable income and complies with other organizational and operational requirements. NBF intends to make dividend distributions that ensure that NBF satisfies those requirements.

NBF will, in principle, effect distributions in accordance with the following policies (Article 14.1 of the Articles of Incorporation).

- (1) NBF's earnings available for distributions are based on accounting of profits prepared in accordance with the Investment Trust Law and in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in Japan.

The distributable amount which results from operation of managed assets of NBF (hereinafter, "Distributable Amount") shall be the amount of profit (the amount of net assets on the balance sheet less the amount of total expenses, capital surplus reserves and estimated or equivalent variances) calculated on each closing date.

- (2) The amount of cash distributions will be determined by NBF, such amount being in excess of 90% of earnings available for dividends of NBF set forth in Article 67.15 of the Special Taxation Measures Law of Japan (hereinafter "Distributable Earnings"), provided, however, that the maximum amount of distributions will be the Distributable Amount. NBF has the right to allow for long-term reserve for renovations, reserve for payables, reserve for cash distributions and other reserves and allowances similar thereto which are deemed necessary for maintaining or enhancing the assets of NBF.

- (3) Earnings retained and not allocated to cash distributions or otherwise available for distribution as of the closing date will be managed in accordance with "Investment Objectives and Policies" in the Articles of Incorporation.

B. Distribution in Excess of Earnings

A registered investment corporation is allowed to distribute cash to its unitholders in excess of the Distributable Amount under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan, although the Investment Trusts Association of Japan has established rules such that a corporate-style J-REIT may pay out the excess of retained earnings for the period up to a maximum of 60% of depreciation for the period. NBF is entitled to make cash distributions of the amounts described below in excess of the Distributable Amount in the following cases, provided, however, that the maximum amount of such distributions will be the amount set forth in the rules of the Investment Trusts Association of Japan (Article 14.2 of the Articles of Incorporation).

- (1) Amount determined by NBF as being eligible for the requirements of Article 39.32.3 of the Special Taxation Treatment for Investment Corporations, in case of the Distributable Amount being less than the Taxable Income Available for Dividends.
- (2) Amount determined by NBF not in excess of the amount of depreciation for the current term less the amount of appropriate reserves for the current term, if NBF determines it appropriate considering trends in macroeconomic environments, real estate markets and leasing markets.

As for cash distributions in excess of profits, as long as the current Japanese taxation treatment applicable to NBF's unitholders in Japan to whom such distributions are paid requires them to calculate capital gain or loss at the time of each distribution, NBF will not make distributions in excess of profits.

Notwithstanding the above, NBF may make distributions in excess of profits in accordance with the distribution policies stated above in order to meet "Requirement for Deduction from Taxable Income of Dividends of Profit, etc.," and if such distributions in excess of profits are deemed necessary by the Board of Directors of NBF.

C. Method of Distributions

Distributions will be made in cash, in principle, within three months from the closing date, to such unitholders or registered pledgees as are listed or recorded in the latest Unitholder Registry as of the closing date, in proportion to the number of units owned by or pledged to them (Article 14.3 of the Articles of Incorporation).

D. Prescription for Cash Distributions, etc.

NBF will be discharged from the obligation to pay distributions of profits three calendar years from the date of commencing payment. Interest will not accrue on unpaid distributions (Article 14.4 of the Articles of Incorporation).

Investment Restrictions

A. Investment Restrictions in Articles of Incorporation

The investment restrictions specified in the Articles of Incorporation and the asset management guidelines applicable to NBF. Please also refer to “Investment Policies of NBF, B. Investment Strategy” herein.

(1) Investment Location and Currencies

NBF will invest neither in real estate located outside of Japan nor in assets denominated in non-Japanese currencies (“Investment Objectives and Policies,” Articles of Incorporation).

(2) Borrowing

See “Investment Policies of NBF, B. Investment Strategy, (4) Financial Policies.”

(3) Concentration of Investment

There is no limitation on concentration of investment. See “Investment Policies of NBF, B. Investment Strategy, (1) Strategy for Creation of the Portfolio.”

(4) Investment Objectives

NBF does not invest aggressively in the Monetary Claims and Securities referred to in “Investment Objectives, B. Other Investment Objectives among Designated Assets.” Rather, NBF takes into account their stability and liquidity based on the extent of their relationship with Designated Assets referred to in “Investment Objectives, A. Principal Investment Objectives among Designated Assets.” NBF invests in rights to financial derivatives transactions solely to hedge against risks, including risks of fluctuation in interest rates for debt (“Investment Objectives and Policies,” Articles of Incorporation).

Moreover, investment in other funds (investment securities or Beneficiary Certificates) is limited mainly to those the assets of which are referred to in “Investment Objectives of NBF, A. Principal Investment Objectives among Designated Assets,” paragraphs (1) and (2).

The real estate held by such funds may not include any real estate located outside of Japan (Articles of Incorporation).

(5) Compliance with Laws and Regulations

The Managed Assets of NBF will be managed in compliance with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan and related regulations, the rules stipulated by the Investment Trusts Association (as amended), as well as “Investment Objectives and Policies” of the Articles of Incorporation.

B. Compliance with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law and the Investment Trust Law of Japan

NBF is subject to restrictions on investment under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law and the investment Trust Law of Japan. Main restrictions are as follows.

(1) Pursuant to Article 198.1 of the Investment Trust Law of Japan, a registered investment corporation must entrust business related to asset management to an asset management company registered as a financial instrument firm, but an asset management company is prohibited from performing certain acts related to the business of managing the assets of said investment corporation. As a result, an investment corporation is subject to certain investment restrictions (all references in parentheses below are to the provisions of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan, except where stated otherwise) besides restrictions applied to a registered investment corporation. NBF will naturally comply with such investment restrictions, a general overview of which follows.

a) Internal Transactions (§ 42.2.1)

Transactions between an asset management company and its directors or officers are prohibited except for certain cases specified in Article 128 of the government ordinance regarding the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law that are considered unlikely to result in failure to protect the interests of unitholders, damage fair transactions or discredit the financial instruments business.

b) Reciprocal Transactions with Managed Assets (§ 42.2.2)

Transactions between asset management companies of investment corporation assets are prohibited except for certain cases specified in the provisions of the government ordinance regarding the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan that are considered unlikely to result in failure to protect the interests of unitholders, damage fair transactions or discredit the financial instruments business.

c) Transactions for the Benefit of Third Parties (§ 42.2.3)

An asset management company may not undertake transactions in certain financial instruments, indices or options based on fluctuations in the price, index, value, or amount of consideration related to transactions in the assets of an investment corporation, without a legally valid reason, with the objective of benefiting a third party other than NBF or said investment.

d) Transactions Harmful to the Interests of NBF (§ 42.2.4)

An asset management company may not undertake transactions that are other than upon normal terms and conditions for such transactions, and further, such transactions upon said conditions would be harmful to the interests of the investment.

e) Other Transactions Defined by Cabinet

Office Ordinances

In addition to the above, the following activities are prohibited (§42.2.7 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law, Cabinet Office Ordinance §130).

- (i) Transactions among the auditors, officers and employees of an asset management company
- (ii) Transactions for the benefit of the investment management company or third parties that would be harmful to the interests of the investment corporation
- (iii) Transactions for the benefit of third parties that are not necessary according to investment management policies, the financial condition of assets under management, or market conditions
- (iv) Asset management that introduces unfair restrictions or other limitations from external entities
- (v) The sale or purchase of investment securities, or similar transactions, with the objective of unfairly inflating transaction amounts or artificially inflating prices
- (vi) Transactions between third parties and their agents (excluding specific transactions to which rights holders have agreed pursuant to advance explanation of the rationale for the transaction)
- (vii) When entities as specified below engage in underwriting investment securities or other transactions, requested tenders or acquisitions of investment securities when the subject investment securities to be acquired by or the amount subscribed under the tender agreement by the said underwriter differ from the planned amounts
 - (a) foreign entities including corporations for their own account (as stipulated by Cabinet Office Ordinance §126.3)
 - (b) entities that hold more than 50/100 of the total amount of investment securities representing underlying managed assets issued in the two most recent fiscal years, as defined by §2.8.1-3, §2.8.8 and §2.8.9 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law (limited to investment securities that give holders rights in the said managed assets and such rights)
- (viii) Other activities prohibited by Cabinet Office Ordinance 130

(2) Limitation on Acquisition of the Same Issue of Units (§ 194 of the Investment Trust Law)

An investment corporation may not acquire the same units issued by a corporation in excess of 50/100 of total number of said issued and outstanding units.

(3) Restriction on Acquisition of Own Units and Acceptance of Pledge (§ 80.1 of the Investment Trust Law)

An investment corporation may not acquire units issued by itself, or accept them for the purpose of pledge, unless it acquires units issued by itself in the following cases:

- when acquired from another investment corporation as the surviving entity of a merger;
- when purchasing units pursuant to the provisions of the Investment Trust Law of Japan; or
- when purchasing units pursuant to a government ordinance regarding the Investment Trust Law of Japan.

(4) Restriction on Acquisition of Parent Corporation's Units by Subsidiary Corporation (§ 81.1.2)

An investment corporation (subsidiary), a majority of the units of which is owned by another investment corporation (parent), may not acquire the units of such parent investment corporation except in the following cases:

- when acquired from another investment corporation as the surviving entity of a merger; or
- when purchasing units pursuant to a government ordinance regarding the Investment Trust Law of Japan.

C. Other Restrictions

Subscription and Margin Trading of Securities

Pursuant to the guidelines set by its asset management company, NBF may not subscribe to, or conduct margin trading of, securities.
